TWO ONE-ACT COMEDIES THE ACTOR'S NIGHTMARE/ THE REAL INSPECTOR HOUND

by Christopher Durang / by Tom Stoppard

Directed by Chris Browne

The Actor's Nightmare: Having casually wandered onstage, George is informed that one of the actors has had an accident and he must replace him immediately. Apparently no one is sure of what play is being performed but George seems to find himself in the middle of a scene from Noel Coward play. As he fumbles through one missed cue after another the other actors shift to Shakespeare, then Beckett, and then a climactic scene from what sort of seems like it could be A Man for All Seasons?

The Real Inspector Hound: Feuding theatre critics Moon and Birdboot, the first a fusty philanderer and the second a pompous and vindictive second stringer, are swept into the whodunit they are viewing. In the hilarious spoof of Agatha Christie-like melodramas that follows, the body under the sofa proves to be a pivotal twist. As mists rise about isolated Muldoon Manor, Moon and Birdfoot become dangerously implicated in the lethal activities of an escaped madman.

Rated PG.

Tickets go on sale August 29th.

DRAMA/HORROR

NIGHTFALL WITH EDGAR ALLEN POE

by Eric Coble

Directed by Chip King

Edgar Allan Poe stands alone in the flickering darkness of his mind, trying desperately to convince himself -- and us -- that he's not mad. The spell he weaves brings us a highly theatrical adaptation of four tales Poe himself considered his best: The Raven, The Fall of the House of Usher, The Pit and the Pendulum, and The Tell-Tale Heart. Enter the world of Poe and check your heartbeat at the door.

Rated PG-13 for disturbing subject matter.

Tickets go on sale October 17th.

DRAMA

THE FATHER

by Florian Zeller

Directed by Gene Davis

Now 80 years old, André was once a tap dancer. He lives with his daughter, Anne, and her husband, Antoine. Or was André an engineer, whose daughter Anne lives in London with her new lover, Pierre? The thing is, he is still wearing his pajamas, and he can't find his watch. He is starting to wonder if he's losing control. Tony Award Nominee for Best Play, 2016. A heartrending, often funny, and all too familiar play about a man losing himself to dementia...as seen through the confused reality of the patient.

Rated G.

Tickets go on sale December 19th.

CLASSIC

ENDGAME

by Samuel Beckett

Directed by Josh Hanson

A pinnacle of Beckett's characteristic raw minimalism, Endgame is a pure and devastating distillation of the human essence in the face of approaching death. Endgame, originally written in French and translated into English by Beckett himself, is considered by many critics to be his greatest single work. Hilarious at times and always thought provoking, Endgame is a must-see for theater lovers.

Rated G.

Tickets go on sale February 23rd.
